

Devote yourself to your work; be dedicated to a purpose that may take time and energy; means the inner strength to remain constant to a purpose, idea, or task in the face of obstacles. This includes dedication, consistency and having a positive attitude. Commitment goes beyond our academic responsibilities.