

Be kind, caring, tolerant, appreciative and accepting of individual differences; be courteous and polite; judge all people on their merits; respect the rights of Individuals to make decisions about their own lives; show self respect; treat others as you would want to be treated; have regard for the property of others as well as for the environment. USD 374 promotes respect, civility, and courtesy in our day-to-day interactions with others.